Dear Nanang Sasmita

Greetings from connecting ASIA,

First of all, we congratulate you for contributing to the success of just concluded AIMC 2019. We really appreciate your support and trust. We are investing all our efforts to publish your work as soon as possible. However, this is not possible without your help.

We have reviewed your paper and reached a decision to submit your paper Adaptation of pioneer plants in the post coal mining land in East Kalimantan Indonesia in Journal of Computational and Theoretical Nanoscience, for possible publication. you can visit journal website <http://www.aspbs.com/ctn/>. you can also check the Scopus status of the journal at <https://www.scopus.com/sourceid/28136?origin=resultslist>. therefore we request you to revise your paper as per following instructions and submit your revised paper as per the template provided in the attached file. Please follow the template carefully and also do the following revisions before submission of your revised version. failure in doing so may result in rejection from the journal.

Revisions Required:

Title:

Avoid using abbreviations in the title.

Authors Name and Affiliation:

provide the following details for each author.

Department, University/institution, City, state, postcode, Country.

Referencing:

Please follow the referencing style as mentioned in the template (Harvard referencing with numbers). Use ENDNOTE or Mendeley Software for referencing.

Provide all references cited in the text in the reference list.

Table and Figures:

Provide clear high-quality figures

cite all figures and tables in the text.

format of table i.e. all columns and rows filled.

if the figure or table is not the authors own work. better to remove it. anything from other source has copyright issues. it is suggested to remove all figures and tables obtained from other work.

Similarity Index

Kindly note we are unable to proceed with the papers that have been rejected due to high similarity and the publication fee is non-refundable in this case. Similarity Index should not be more than 15% overall and 5% from a single source.

proofreading of the article is a must. kindly proofread your paper carefully before final submission.

No further corrections will be entertained once the paper is submitted to the journal.

Timeframe:

The maximum deadline for all corrections is 15-06-2019. We are not able to process any paper submitted later than the deadline. Kindly note that the publication process may take 4-6 months. We hope your immediate response can expedite the publication process.

Scholars Asia Editorial Services:

Keeping in view the difficulty for the authors in preparing manuscripts as per journal standard. Connecting Asia contacted third-party arrangements for the following services to the authors on the subsidized rate.

1. Proofreading
2. Paraphrasing (Plagiarism removal. Vendor will provide Turnitin report and proofreading certificate).
3. Formatting including referencing and journal template.

The connecting Asia members can get a 50% discount on these services. This facility is available exclusively for connecting Asia members. kindly email your abstract id number at scholarsasia@gmail.com detail pricing and services.

Dear Dr

Greetings from ASIA, we Congratulate you as your paper has been accepted by the Journal of Computational and Theoretical Nanoscience

after passing through double peer review, formatting, other necessary updates and paperwork required by the journal. here below attached is the Gally proof for your paper, make sure at this point we are not offering any kind of change in your paper as the paper is already sent to the journal for publication. Soon we will update you in term of publication

Connecting ASIA team also congratulates you for your participation in the AIMC-2019 conference. The successes recorded in AIMC-2019 couldn't have been possible without your participation and encouragement and now We are pleased to invite you to take part in our upcoming event i.e 5th Asia International Conference 2019 KLCC, Malaysia AIC 2019.

As AIC is the trademark of connecting Asia conferences, Previously AIC recorded huge success on its name. There are many other achievements in the name of last year's AIC, that may need a long time to count. The delegates from 32 countries participated in AIC-2018, which was itself a great achievement for Connecting ASIA in order to provide a multicultural networking experience for conference participants.

Dear Nanang Sasmita,
Thank you for your excellent contribution to Journal of Computational and Theoretical Nanoscience. Attached is the typeset article which you submitted to American Scientific Publishers. Please answer all queries if there are any attached. Please review carefully and reply all back in 48 hours* (two business days) with corrections you may need. Please reply even if there are no corrections. We want to be sure you reviewed the galley. You may submit corrections via e-mail. We wish that you reply to both asproofs@gmail.com and tebera@angtype.com to ensure delivery. Offprint ORDER FORMS is also attached here. If you decide to order offprint please return all ORDER FORMS to order@aspbs.com. If you have difficulties sending email to tebera@angtype.com and asproofs@gmail.com please send your mail to4aspsupport@gmail.com. Also send any bounced email or MailerDaemons there as well. *If you do not send your reply in this time. It may delay your paper indefinitely. It is better to send in your reply late than not at all. If you have corrections to your manuscript do not supply a revised manuscript without tracking or highlighting the changes. We will not typeset your article over. We will update your proof with your highlighted changes. If there is no highlighted changes or clearly marked revisions the manuscript will be ignored.

American Scientific Publishers has spent money and time in creating the attached galley proofs. If any author at this stage of production would withdraw his/her work, then there will be a penalty of US$200.00 per page.

Regards,
ASP Support
